

GDS Profile - General

Use this page to note basic information about your hotel that is not found in other areas, but can be used in conjunction with the information in other areas to form a complete picture of your hotel.

GDS Profile

- Located at: Setup > Data Management > General
- This section allows you to specify general information of the property including property website, unit of measure, and fax details.